Happy New Year

I hope everyone enjoyed the Christmas holiday and you were able to spend time with your family. It's hard to believe another year has gone by, especially with this Covid problem. Anyway, All the Best in the New Year to you and your families.

My wife, Leanne and I decided instead of spending a lot of money on each other for Christmas, we would make up some Christmas bags for the homeless. With the help of Leanne's sister DeeDee and our son Steve, we made up 30 gift bags (18 for men & 12 for women). On Christmas morning we got 30 cups of coffee and 30 muffins ready and headed out to the streets to give it all out. It's so rewarding to see the smiles and how thankful they are, as usual though, we never have enough.

Which brings me to the next thing. Helping the homeless. This has become really important as the need is huge.

I had always wanted to go to the shop with my Dad just because I loved the smell.

I got my first paying job in a shop at age 14. I worked in related fields all through high school and ever since.

I ventured into heavy duty mechanical repairs for several year, working from Vancouver Island to Gillam and in between.

My job has been my hobby most of my life.

and have 4 children and 3 grandchildren.

I was involved in all the regular sports growing up. Played baseball, hockey and track in high school. I also competed in the Canada Games throwing Javelin.

For the last 10 years I have done a bit of running. I have ran many marathons including Boston, Green Bay, Montreal and of course the Manitoba Marathon.

I ventured into the Ultra Marathon races a bit including Beaudry 24 hr, Barkley (Tennessee) and a cross country (mountain) from Aspen to Vail.

The goal is to never stop learning and to keep my mind active.

If you would like to help, either drop off the cash at Lanpro or email me at lance@lanproauto.com You don't get a tax receipt, but know every dollar goes to help the homeless. No amount is too small, it all helps. We will be going out in early January again.

I've talked before about our rewards program. Now it is integrated with our operating program and the only thing you have to do, is bring in the savings coupons and certificates.. The computer program keeps track of your points—no card or # to remember. It can't be easier to save yourself some money

We have our digital inspection up and running now. The best part about it is: we can send you pictures and videos of any issues with your vehicle. Also you can do text to pay. It's critical that we have your correct cell number and correct email address in order for you to be able to take advantage of this new and exciting system

From all of us at Lanpro Auto, ALL THE BEST in the NEW YEAR!

Warmly,
